Scipion Nasica et Ennius. Scipion Nasica etait tres intimement lie avec le poete Ennius. Un jour qu' il etait venu le voir, et l'ayant demande a la porte, la servante d' Ennius lui dit que son maitre n' y etait pas. Nasica comprit qu' elle avait ainsi repondu par l'ordre d' Ennius qui etait chez lui. Peu de jours apres, Ennius etant alle voir Nasica, et l'ayant demande a la porte, Nasica lui-meme lui cria qu' il n'etait pas a la maison. "Quoi donc," reprit Ennius, " est-ce que je ne reconnais pas votre voix?" Alors Nasica lui dit: "Vous etes bien impudent: le jour que je vins vous demander j'ai cru votre servante, qui me dit que vous n' etiez pas chez vous; et vous ne me croyez pas moimeme." Mort de Cesar. Les guerres civiles etant terminees, Cesar, cree dictateur perpetuel, commença a se conduire avec hauteur. Excerpt: ...cause quelque temps avec cet officier, il lui demanda ce qu' il pensait que les Americains feraient de lui s'il tombait entre leurs mains. Le capitaine refusa d'abord de repondre; mais comme l'autre insistait, il dit: "S'il faut que je reponde a votre question, j'espere que vous excuserez ma franchise. Si mes compatriotes vous attrapaient, je crois qu' ils vous couperaient d'abord cette jambe, qui fut blessee dans la cause de la liberte a Quebec, et l'enterraient avec les honneurs de la guerre; et qu' ils pendraient ensuite le reste de votre corps a une potence." Puniton des Debiteurs Juifs. Le calife Omar, allant a Jerusalem pour prendre possession de cette ville, rencontra plusieurs malheureux qui etaient attaches a des arbres, et exposes a toutes les rigueurs d'un soleil vertical. Le calife leur ayant demande pourquoi ils avaient ete condammes a subir un tourment aussi affreux, ils repondirent qu' ils etaient de pauvres debiteurs, incapables de payer leurs creanciers. Omar ordonna qu' ils fussent immediatement delies; et, ayant envoye chercher les creanciers, il leur adressa les paroles suivantes: " Cessez de tourmenter ces malheureux. N' exigez pas d'eux plus qu' ils ne peuvent donner; car j'ai souvent entendu le prophete dire: ' Ne faites pas souffrir les hommes, car ceux qui affligent les hommes dans ce monde, seront inevitablement punis dans l'autre.' " la' Ironie est repoussee par V Ironie. Pendant la guerre qui eut lieu entre l'Angleterre et l'Espagne sous le regne d'Elisabeth, des commissaires furent nommes des deux...

Excerpt from French Anecdotes And Questions, Written In Easy Style: Intended As A Progressive Reciting Book For Schools; And Especially, In Conjunction With "Collot's French Dialogues And Phrases," As A Guide To French Conversation The Author conceives the plan which he has just now folded to be entirely new. He has met with signal success, by means of it, in his labours as a teacher; and has found it equally valuable in the instruction of classes, and in private tuition. When using it in classes, the teacher, after calling on each pupil to recite the anecdote which is the lesson (or one of the anecdotes, when the lesson consists of more than one), will address his questions to each individual at random; requiring all, but the one engaged in answering the question, to listen attentively. By this means, the progress of an individual in a class will be as rapid, as if he alone were receiving instruction. Il se fit introduire quoiqu' il y eut une nombreuse compagnie; et, s'approchant de l'oreille du Vicomte, il lui rappelle sa promesse de la veille, et en recoit les cent louis. Turenne lui donna le temps de s'eloigner, apres quoi il conta son aventure a l'assemblee. Tout le monde parut surpris de son procede. " Un honnete homme," dit-il, " ne doit jamais manquer a sa parole, bien qu' il l' ait donnee a des fripons." Le Quiproquo.
