Rain on the Dead: Sean Dillon, Book 21 (Unabridged)

In Washington, D.C., on a night full of rain, a woman is struck down and killed by a hit-and-run driver. But she is not just any woman - she is the assistant to the head of the secret White House department known only as the Basement. And she had secrets of her own. In the Virgin Islands, former president Jake Cazalet receives a warning.

Rain on the Dead (Sean Dillon, #21) by Jack Higgins

You don't really swim in the Dead Sea - you go in for a few minutes and float - even if it is chilly and the water is cool it is bearable to have the unique experience of floating there. It doesn't rain all that much in the winter - of course, no one can guarantee the weather for the day you will plan on going to Masada, but odds are that it ...
